

Safe Driving Considerations

Real loss of dignity comes when we don't pay attention to life's warning signs. A little dent here, a minor accident there—these are signs from the universe that it is time to stop driving. Honor those who have the courage to let you know when it is no longer time to drive. They have your best interest at heart and simply don't want you to hurt yourself....or anyone else.

Pledge: If there comes a time when it is no longer advisable for me to drive and/or I am unable to make this decision, the person(s) listed below are designated by me to make this decision on my behalf. At such time, I agree to turn over my car keys and become familiar with different modes of transportation (i.e. taxi, bus, shuttle, personal assistant).
